VOL. XXXVI.

STANFORD, KY., FRIDAY, APRIL 17, 1908.

NO. 13.

Resolutions by the Lincoln County Medical Society on Dr. Steele Bailey.

The committee appointed to draft resolutions on the removal of Dr. Steele Bailey to Robinson, Utah, Timbri Hospital, respectfully submits the following resolutions. It is resolved:

1st. That the Lincoln County Medical Society is loth to give up Dr. Bailey, a most worthy and illustrious member. Not only this society but the city of Stanford, the county of Lincoln and the State of Kentucky have lost a most desirable citizen and Dr. Bailey's numerous clientele have lost the skilled and beneficial services of an honorable, upright, erudite, courteous and affable practitioner, whose place it will be exceedingly difficult to fill.

2nd. That Dr. Bailey was honored with the vice presidency and presidency of the Central Kentucky Medical Society early in his professional career and was its efficient and accomplished secretary for 30 years and did more than all the other members to maintain its great success and usefulness. Furthermore, Dr. Bailey was the honored secretary of the Kentucky State Medical Society for 20 years and is responsible for the great achievements this society has accomplished as a State organization. His election as secretary was unanimous every year. As secretary and then as president of the State society he gave it prestige, placing it in the front ranks of the State associations. He augmented its membership from 75 to 1,300 members.

3rd. He was also county referee and for many years the efficient and faithful chairman of the Lincoln County Board of Health and was powerful and influential in arresting the spread of several epidemics of small pox and other contagious diseases.

4th. Dr. Bailey was a kind, good neighbor in all the word implies. He is a member of the Presbyterian church and lives up to the Scripture's teachings. The Golden Rule was his motto. When shall we have so worthy an exemplar to follow? We hope he will continue to add lustre to his already illustrious name and enjoy the greatest success, happiness and wealth in his new field of labor, the gold mines of the distant West, and if he gets more gold than he can handle that he will send it to the poorly paid physicians of the Lincoln County Medical Society.

5th. That these resolutions be unanimously adopted, embodied in the minutes of this society and that a copy be sent to Dr. Bailey by the secretary and also a copy to the INTERIOR JOURNAL and to the Journal of the Kentucky Medical Association and to the secretary of the Utah State Medical Association for publication.

A Twenty Year Sentence.

"I have just completed a twenty year health sentence, imposed by Bucken's Arnica Salve, which cured me of bleeding piles just twenty years ago." Writes O. S. Woodruff, of LeRayville, N. Y. Bucken's Arnica Salve heals the worst sores, boils, burns, wounds and cuts in the shortest time. Sold at Penny's Drug Store.

The use of snake venom is increasing in the practice of medicine and its price is soaring upward rapidly.

Women Inclined to Constipation

Women, owing to their peculiar functions, are prone to constipation, and many of their other ills are due to this congestion in the bowels which fills the blood with impure matter that permeates the entire system. In most cases foul breath, bad complexion, sick headache and such like ills are primarily caused by constipation or indigestion.

Women should be happy to learn of a remedy that cures constipation and indigestion, and that has such other ingredients as purify the blood and tone up all the digestive organs. This remedy is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which can be bought at any drug store for 50 cents or $1 a bottle. Women have been curing themselves with this remedy for sixteen years, and the offer of years ago still stands to-day, that you buy Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin with the understanding that it will do as claimed or your money will be refunded.

This great herb laxative compound is especially suited to the delicate system of women because of its gentle but prompt action. Its pleasant taste and its freedom from griping. It does not weaken like purgatives and cathartics, but builds up and strengthens. It is a guaranteed permanent cure and should be as steadily in your home as in that of thousands of others. Women use it themselves and give it to children in preference to any other laxative because it is guaranteed to do what a good laxative should do, and does it gently. Mrs. Tynan, of 838 McLain Ave., St. Louis, Mo., is glad to say that it cured her constipation and stomach trouble and recommends it to American womanhood. She is but one of thousands who are loud in praise of it. You who have never used it should begin to-day. You will date your freedom from sickness to the day that you start the use of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. Your druggist will sell you a bottle under our absolute guarantee.

FREE TEST Those wishing to try Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin before buying can have a free sample bottle sent to them home by addressing the company. This offer is to prove that the remedy will do as we claim, and is only open to those who have never taken it. Send for it if you have any symptoms of stomach, liver or bowel disease. Gentlest yet most effective laxative for children, women and old folks. A guaranteed permanent home cure. THE PUBLIC VERDICT: "No Laxative So Good and Sure as DR. CALDWELL'S SYRUP PEPSIN." This product bears purity guarantee No. 17, Washington, D. C.

OWSLEY-BUSH.

The marriage of Miss Emma McGee Owsley to Mr. James Richard Bush was a beautiful event of last evening. It was celebrated at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's father on Ashland avenue, Rev. Edwin Muller officiating, and only kinsmen and most intimate friends were present. The wedding was one of the most beautiful social features of the spring, and an event of much interest on account of the prominence of both families and the popularity of the couple. The wedding colors were pink and white, and were exquisitely carried out in all details. The lovely home which has recently been completed was a bower of greens and blossoms. Great palms, ferns and rubber plants were banded in pretty pyramids about the walls, doorways and in front of mantels. Swinging fern baskets made a pretty decoration overhead and against this green setting were vases filled with pink and white roses, sweet peas, lilies and other flowers. The drawing room, the scene of the ceremony, was especially beautiful in its decorations. The bridal party stood before the double windows, which were banded with palms, ferns and trailing hydrangea, making a lovely picture for the wedding guests. The procession appeared as Saxton and Trust's orchestra sounded Lohengrin's Bridal Chorus and came slowly into the drawing rooms. First came the little ring bearer, Miss Mary Manier Wells, of Danville, the charming little niece of the bride. She wore a beautiful gown of white mull and lace trimmed with pink satin rosettes and carried the ring on a small silver tray; following were the lovely little ribbon bearers, Misses Mary Walton, of this city, and Margaret Wells, of Danville. They also wore beautiful white mull gowns trimmed with the pink satin rosettes and held broad white satin ribbons to form the aisle to the altar. The lovely maid of honor, Miss Mary Linda Manier, of Nashville, Tenn., a niece of the bride, walked slowly alone. She was beautiful in a gown of white mull elaborately trimmed with lace and carried a huge bunch of pink sweet peas. Preceding the bride who entered with her father, Mr. J. S. Owsley, was the little flower girl, Virginia McGowan Owsley, a beautiful little tot of three years, who carried a basket filled with pink sweet peas. She wore white mull and lace with pink satin ribbons, white slippers and stockings, and as she walked slowly from the altar after the ceremony, threw the blossoms in the aisle before the bride. The bridegroom with his best man, Mr. Nathan Elliot, came across the hall from the library and joined the bride at the altar. The ceremony was beautiful and impressive, and the couple knelt on white satin pillows for the final blessing, after which Mendelssohn's Wedding March sounded joyfully and congratulations were showered upon them. The bride was charming in an exquisite real lace wedding gown over chiffon and silk. She wore the tulle veil, caught with orange blossoms and carried a shower of white roses and lilies of the valley. An informal reception followed the ceremony and a delicious course supper was served during the delightful hours. The bride's table was covered with elegant lace pieces, and for the center decorations there was a tall silver pitcher filled with pink sweet peas, lilies of the valley and magnolia. On the four corners were exquisite bouquets of the flowers, and here and there completing the beautiful scene were silver candelabra holding pink shaded candles and silver platters and bowls filled with pretty confections. The wedding cake, designed as a heart, was covered with bunches of pink candied sweet peas and from the sides hung tiny green ribbons, to which were attached the emblems of fate which were drawn with much interest during the evening. The bridal couple left on the late train for a bridal trip of several weeks and on their return will make their home with the bride's father. The bride is one of Kentucky's loveliest young women. She is handsome and attractive, and since coming to Lexington several years ago to make their home, she has won a host of devoted friends and admirers. She is a member of one of Kentucky's most prominent families, and is a sister of Mrs. W. P. Walton, of this city. Mr. Bush, formerly of Stanford, located in Lexington several years ago. He is a member of the law firm of Stoll and Bush, and one of our leading young attorneys. He is very popular and has a host of friends both in social and business life. —Lexington Herald, April 12.

NEWS NOTES.

Judge Lightfoot over-ruled a petition for a local option election at Paducah. The Midway council has made it a fine of $1 to spit on the pavements of that little city.

At the trial of Eddie Flack and Mrs. Sola Kirtley at Mt. Sterling Judge Albie Young dismissed the defendants on peremptory instructions. They were charged with poisoning Robert Kirtley, husband of the young woman.

Insurance men estimate the loss from the Chelsea fire at nearly $6,000,000. Relief measures for the 10,000 persons made homeless by the conflagration were quickly taken and no aid will be asked outside of Massachusetts.

While returning home from church, Henry McGowan stabbed and fatally wounded Loxie R. Dunbar, son of ex-Sheriff J. T. Dunbar, near Sunshine, Russell county. McGowan is alleged to have been drinking and after a few words, turned on Dunbar. McGowan fled immediately.

Heirs of Dr. H. D. Cox, who was assassinated at Jackson several years ago, have compromised the suit against the estate of Judge James Hargis, a settlement being effected after a conference of all interested parties at Jackson. It is said that the amount agreed upon was $4,600. The case had been pending at Lexington for two years.

There is a man working on the Danville section of the Q. & C. road who can read, write and speak fluently three languages—German, French and Italian. He has a smattering of English. While not speaking, he understands Arabic, Russian, Spanish and Chinese, and yet works at $1.10 per day tamping cross-ties. —Advocate.

The languid, lifeless feeling that comes with Spring and early Summer, can be quickly changed to a feeling of buoyancy and energy by the judicious use of Dr. Shoop's Restorative. The Restorative is a genuine tonic to tired, rundown nerves, and but a few doses is needed to satisfy the user that Dr. Shoop's Restorative is actually reaching that tired spot. The indoor life of winter nearly always leads to sluggish bowels, and to sluggish circulation in general. The customary lack of exercise and outdoor air ties up the liver, stagnates the kidneys, and oft-times weakens the heart's action. Use Dr. Shoop's Restorative a few weeks and all will be changed. A few days' test will tell you that you are using the right remedy. You will easily and surely note the change from day to day. Sold by Penny's Drug Store.

Macon Champion, one of the men accused of being a member of the band of night riders in Calloway county, made a confession at Murray to County Judge Wells and implicated 15 men, who are not yet under arrest and whose names have been withheld. The grand jury was impaneled at Murray Monday. Judge Cook instructed them to investigate the tobacco troubles and indict every man against whom evidence can be secured. One of the jurors was challenged, affidavits being produced to show that he had expressed himself as being in sympathy with the night riders. The juror, however, was allowed to take his seat as a member of the jury.

He Got What He Needed.

"Nine years ago it looked as if my time had come," says Mr. C. Farthing, of Mill Creek, Ind. Ter. "I was so run down that life hung on a very slender thread. It was then my druggist recommended Electric Blitters. I bought a bottle and I got what I needed—strength. I had one foot in the grave, but Electric Blitters put it back on the turf again, and I've been well ever since." Sold under guarantee at Penny's Drug Store. 50c.

Olympian Springs is slowly but surely taking its place in the front rank of health resorts. Its healing waters act like the "Oil of Joy" upon the most obstinate cases of rheumatism, stomach trouble, liver and bladder complaints. The new buildings will be completed this month, after which 50 people can be comfortably accommodated. From the many inquiries and engagements up to the present, the coming season will be a record breaker.

A classical program by Central University Glee Club and orchestra, assisted by some of the best soprano and tenor soloists in the musical world, will be given at Alcorn's Opera House this, Friday evening. This will be the greatest musical event ever given in our city. Miss Cochran is one of the finest exponents of the Italian art of singing. Whether in concert or in opera she easily ranks with the prima donnas of the day. The delicate intimacy of the waltz is not too elusive for her voice, as well as others in the company. Reserved seats at Yowell's.

Death Was On His Heels.

Jesse P. Morris, of Skippers, Va., had a close call in the Spring of 1906. He says: "An attack of pneumonia left me so weak and with such a fearful cough that my friends declared consumption had me, and death was on my heels. Then I was persuaded to try Dr. King's New Discovery. It helped me immediately, and after taking two and a half bottles I was a well man again. I found out that New Discovery is the best remedy for coughs and lung disease in all the world." Sold under guarantee at Penny's Drug Store. 50c and $1. Trial bottle free.

A lady philanthropist was applied to for charity by a well-dressed woman. "Are you married?" was the question.

"Yes."
"What is your husband?"
"Out o' work."
"But what is he when he is in work?" asked the philanthropist.
"You don't understand, miss," was the reply. "He is a regular out-o'-worker." —London Chronicle.

BRER ED WALTON has bought a handsome new home. Didn't we tell you he would soon be on Easy Street when he bought that house?—Somerset Journal. If you knew the terms of the purchase of that house you would conclude that we should have moved to Starvation street, if there be such an one in the country.

SPEEDY JUSTICE.—Rev. J. Murray Taylor showed us a copy of the Manassas, Va., Journal, which tells of a case of speedy justice there. Some burglars got in their work on Sunday night and on Wednesday they were doing time in the penitentiary. If Kentucky courts would emulate this example some of the meanness would be left undone.

EIGHT GENERATIONS.—John James, of the East End, is only 52 years old and has seen eight generations. They are his mother, grandmother, great-grandmother and great, great grandmother, himself, his children, his grandchildren and great grandchildren. Mr. Russell Dillon gave us this item and if you are inclined to doubt it, see him and he will show you the remarkable man.

LAWSON.—Eb M. Lawson, familiarly known as "Shep," died at Liberty, Kansas, and his remains will arrive here to-night. His mother, Mrs. Melena Lawson, received the sad news yesterday morning. On Wednesday a telegram came telling of his serious illness. It is not known what his trouble was. Mr. Lawson went West with Mr. George T. Wood a year or so ago and had been at Liberty several months, having first stopped at Broken Arrow, Okla. He was a kind-hearted, clever man and the announcement of his death causes much sorrow here. The burial will occur at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon in the Lancaster cemetery.

FOR COUNTY JUDGE.—Judge J. S. Owsley, present incumbent by appointment of Gov. J. C. W. Beckham, announces his candidacy for the democratic nomination to succeed himself as county judge. It will be remembered that Mr. Owsley was appointed to fill the unexpired term of Judge R. C. Warren, who died in November last. Under the constitution the appointment could not be made until the end of Judge Warren's term, hence the term of Judge Owsley will expire with the beginning of next year. He now asks that he be given the nomination for the coming year of 1909. That he has filled the trying office acceptably no one will gainsay. He has been very attentive to business and has scarcely been out of town since he was sworn in. Judge Owsley's management of the county affairs have been all that could be asked.

SAMPSON.

This young jack will make this season at my farm where I live (the S. H. Baughman farm), mile south of Stanford on the Somerset pike, at $10 to insure more colts and 10 to insure more colts. I consider Sampson a good breeding jack. All of his last year colts were extra. I showed two of them at Stanford, Lancaster and Hustonville fairs, and won both 1st and 2nd premiums in each ring of 6 to 10 entries at all three fairs; also won 1st in the sweepstake ring at Lancaster, the only fair that gave a sweepstake. Eight of his 1907 colts and four of his 1908 colts are now on my farm to show for themselves. I will appreciate any interest sent to him and feel sure you will not regret sending. J. H. BAUGHMAN, Stanford, Ky. Phone 46.

Located just out from State College and 30 of the students take their meals there. Building is lighted by natural gas. Some fruit trees and grape arbor in yard. Fine chicken. Will either trade or sell on easy terms. J. H. Stephens, Lexington, Ky., 16 Graham Ave. Photograph of the house is at this office and prospective purchasers are invited to call and see it.
